Product description

The Sleepy Stars sleep sack keeps babies at a comfortable temperature through the night. It is made of certified organic cotton, has a two-way zipper for quick night-time diaper changes and a TOG 1.0 rating that works for most bedrooms. It was developed with midwives and is designed for parents who want a safe, simple sleep routine for their baby.

Key selling points

- Certified organic cotton, free of harmful substances (OEKO-TEX tested)
- Two-way zipper: diaper changes without waking the baby
- Developed with midwives, safe-sleep guidelines followed
- Grows with the baby: adjustable shoulders for 0-6 months, extra length for 6-18 months
- Machine washable at 40 degrees, keeps its shape

Campaign brief

Goal	sales (online shop and baby-store launch before Christmas)
Campaign budget	EUR 16,000 in total, creator fees included
Target countries	Austria and Germany
Timeline	2026-11-16 to 2026-12-13 (four weeks, gift-guide posts in the last two weeks)
Platforms	Instagram and TikTok preferred, YouTube for longer sleep-routine videos

Target audience

Women aged 27-40 in Austria and Germany who are expecting a baby or have a baby or toddler. They follow parenting content, look for honest recommendations from other parents and care about organic materials and safety. The audience of the creators should be mostly female and based in Austria or Germany.

Desired tone

Authentic and casual, with real family life instead of staged perfection. Humour is welcome. No fear-based messaging about sleep and no medical promises.

Restrictions

No influencers who promote: alcohol, gambling, crypto. No creators who work for competing baby brands (for example Windelwunder) around the launch. All posts must carry a clear advertising label (Werbung).
